Time was well spent at Knox High School during the 1965-66 school year. There was time for fun and pleasure as students attended ball games, dances, and club parties; time for gaining knowledge from the many courses offered to Knox High students; time for special events such as Homecoming, the Junior-Senior Prom, the All Sports Banquet, and Honor Day; and time for competitive sports for which the entire student body showed much enthusiasm.

There was time for convocations, cramming for final examinations, chats in the halls, drinks at the water fountain between classes, field trips, Senior Week, career night, decorating the Christmas tree in the corridor, laughing, crying, studying, and deep concentration.

There was time at our Knox schools for students to utilize every phase of school life and curricula and to maintain a well-rounded education.

Time Was for the Presentation of This

Time was when the annual staff met every day the third period in room four to fulfil their duties of planning and producing the 1966 Sandbur.

The editor, Billie Jo Elam, and her assistants, Cindy McClure and Sharon Hanson, had very important jobs. Among these were choosing a theme, planning the order of the pages in the annual, helping anyone in need, and doing everything that didn't get finished by someone else. Kathy Zechiel, the business manager, had the responsibility of managing the ads and money needed to make the annual. The photographers, Larry Dust and Dennis Price, spent most of their time taking and developing pictures for the annual. All of these students and many other on the editorial staff were aided by Mrs Hite, who helped anyone in trouble and supervised all pages.

It is with pride and perhaps a little bit of relief that the staff presents the finished product on the following pages. We hope that all will enjoy it and cherish it more through the years to come.

Homecoming

Homecoming Was a Time for Parades

The 1965 Homecoming was a time for fun and excitement. The Homecoming Parade consisted of floats, queen candidates, the band, football players, and the students. It takes several components to make a good Homecoming and when they are joined together, they make an exciting day for all.

The only disappointment of the day was Knox's loss to Rensselaer with a score of 33—6. The day still retained its glow with the school spirit the fans kept for their team.

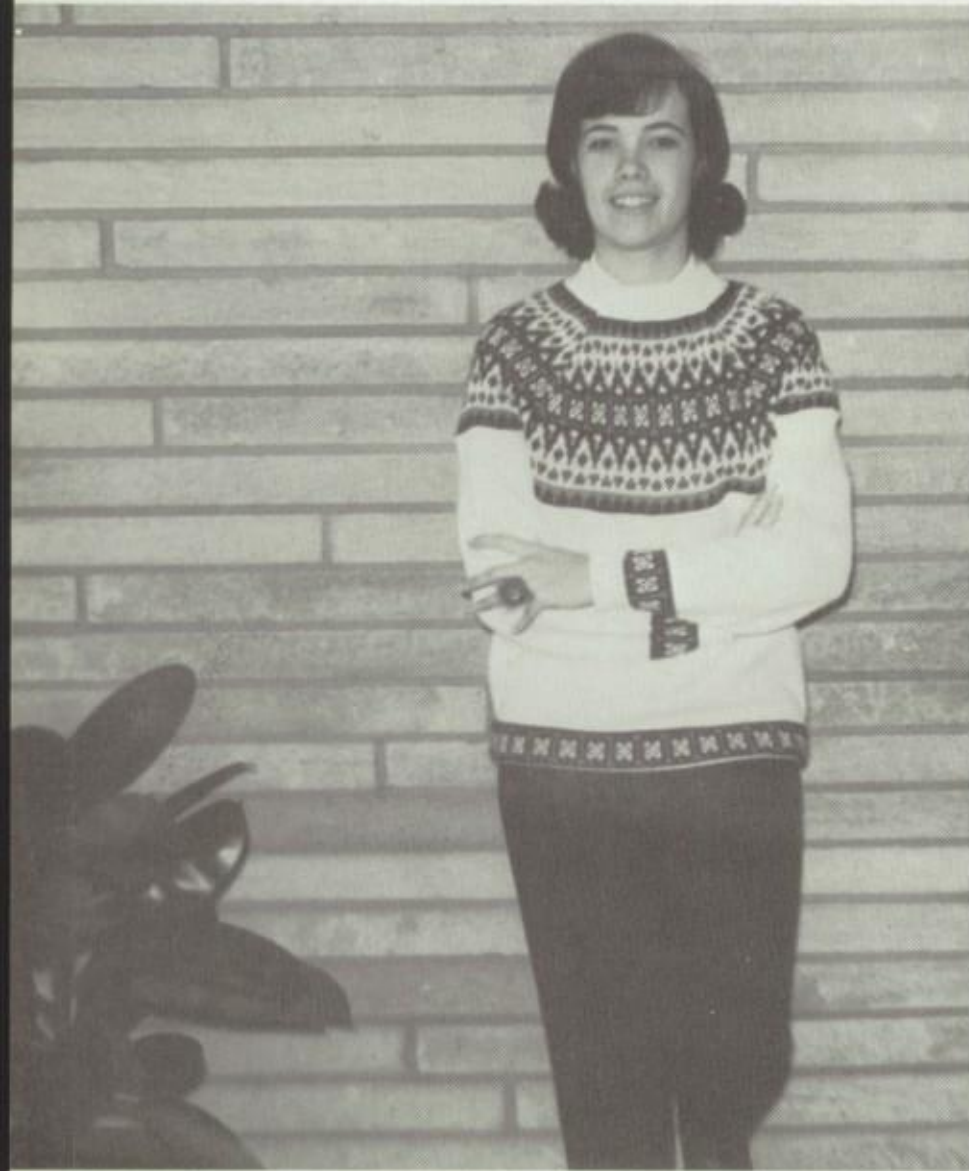

To make the day complete, a dance was sponsored by the Seniors which was enjoyed by everyone.

Most of the Junior High students displayed as much school spirit as Donna Harris.

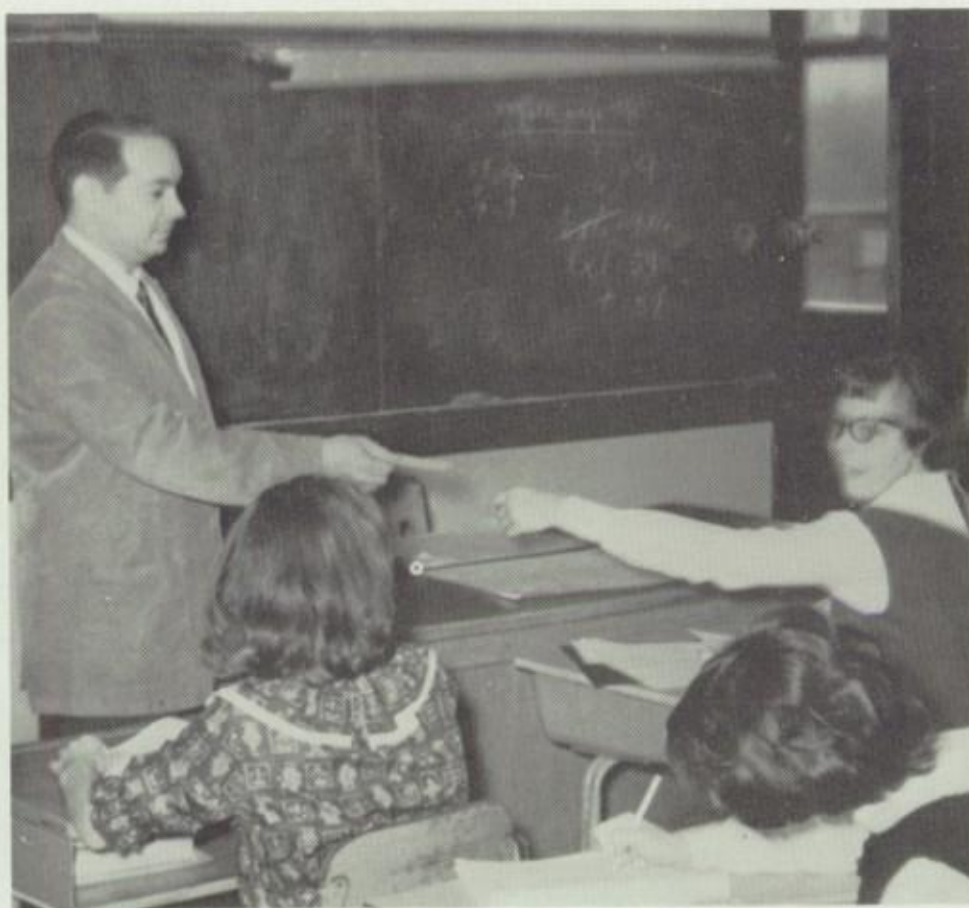

There was time for fun as well as hard work at Knox Junior High School. Everyday routines were memorable ones to its students.

There was time for learning and gaining knowledge from the many courses offered. There was also time for fun and pleasure as students attended games, dances, and parties.

Time Was for Special Programs

The student body was entertained by many fine convocations and programs during the year. The Student Council selected lyceum programs which would be enjoyable and educational to everyone. They included programs given by an organist, a famous opera singer, and many others. The Veteran's Day program was presented by the speech class with Mr. John George as the guest speaker. The Christmas convocation, presented by the high school chorus, was also enjoyed by all.

As one can see by the faces of several members of the student body, the programs given during the year were very interesting and appreciated by everyone.

and Convocations

Language Courses Were Beneficial

Drawing the Latin ladder kept these Sophomores busy.

Translating German called for much hard work and studying.

Debates were an important part of speech class.

to Those Who Pursued Them

Wade Nichols gives a book report in Sophomore English class.

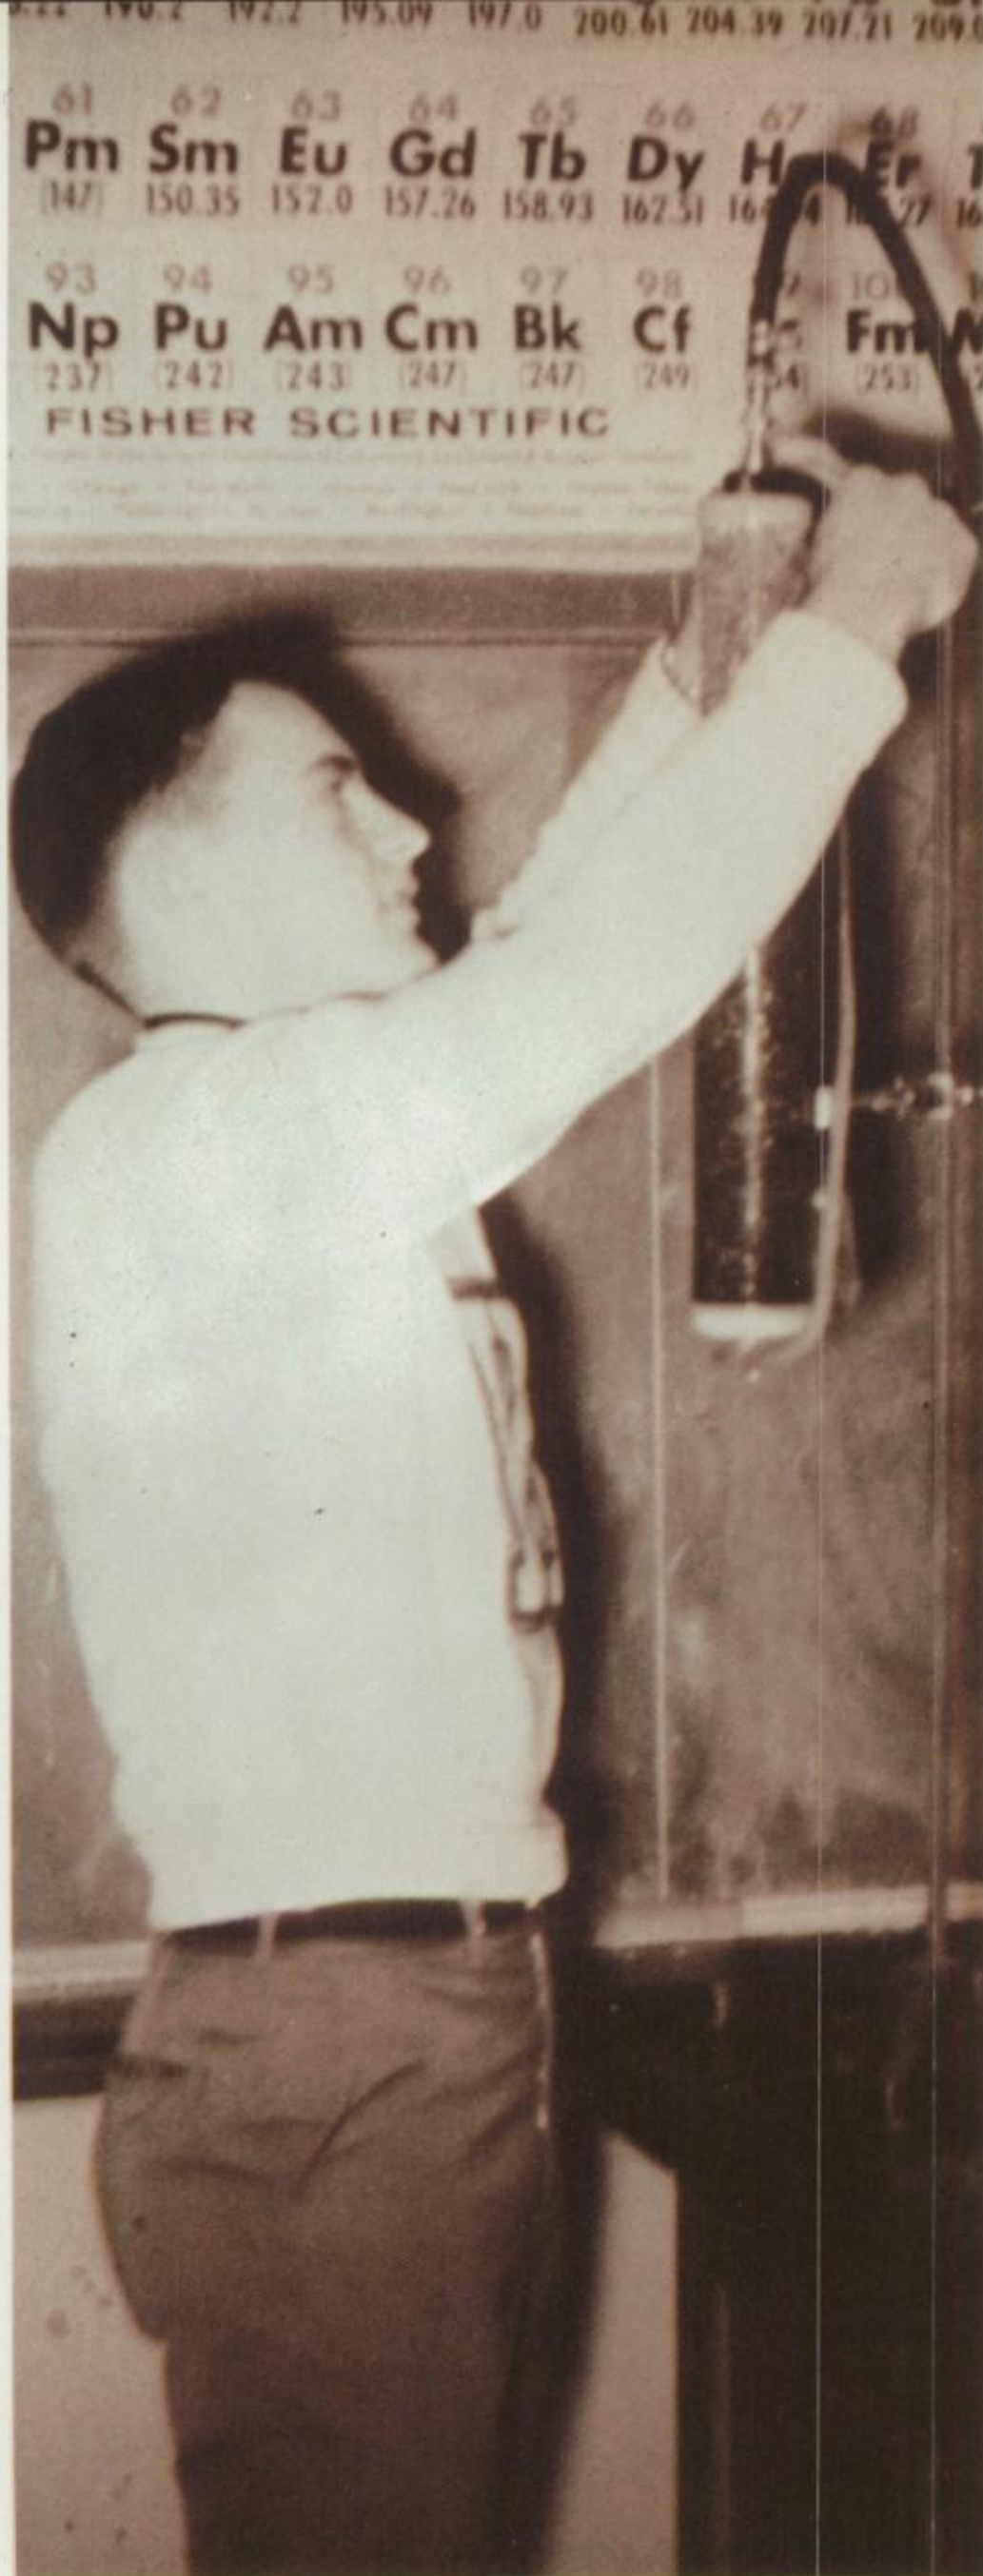

Cindy adds the finishing touches to the Senior English bulletin board.

In the English classes students strove to perfect their knowledge of spelling, punctuation, and vocabulary through a never-ending succession of themes, book reports, and term papers. Literature helped students learn more about the people of the world through great writings.

In addition to English, two other languages were offered. Latin and German students realized, through many hours of study and translation, that these languages are keys to understanding English.

Speech class was very beneficial to those who pursued the course. In addition to individual speeches, the class took part in many discussions and debates.

Science and

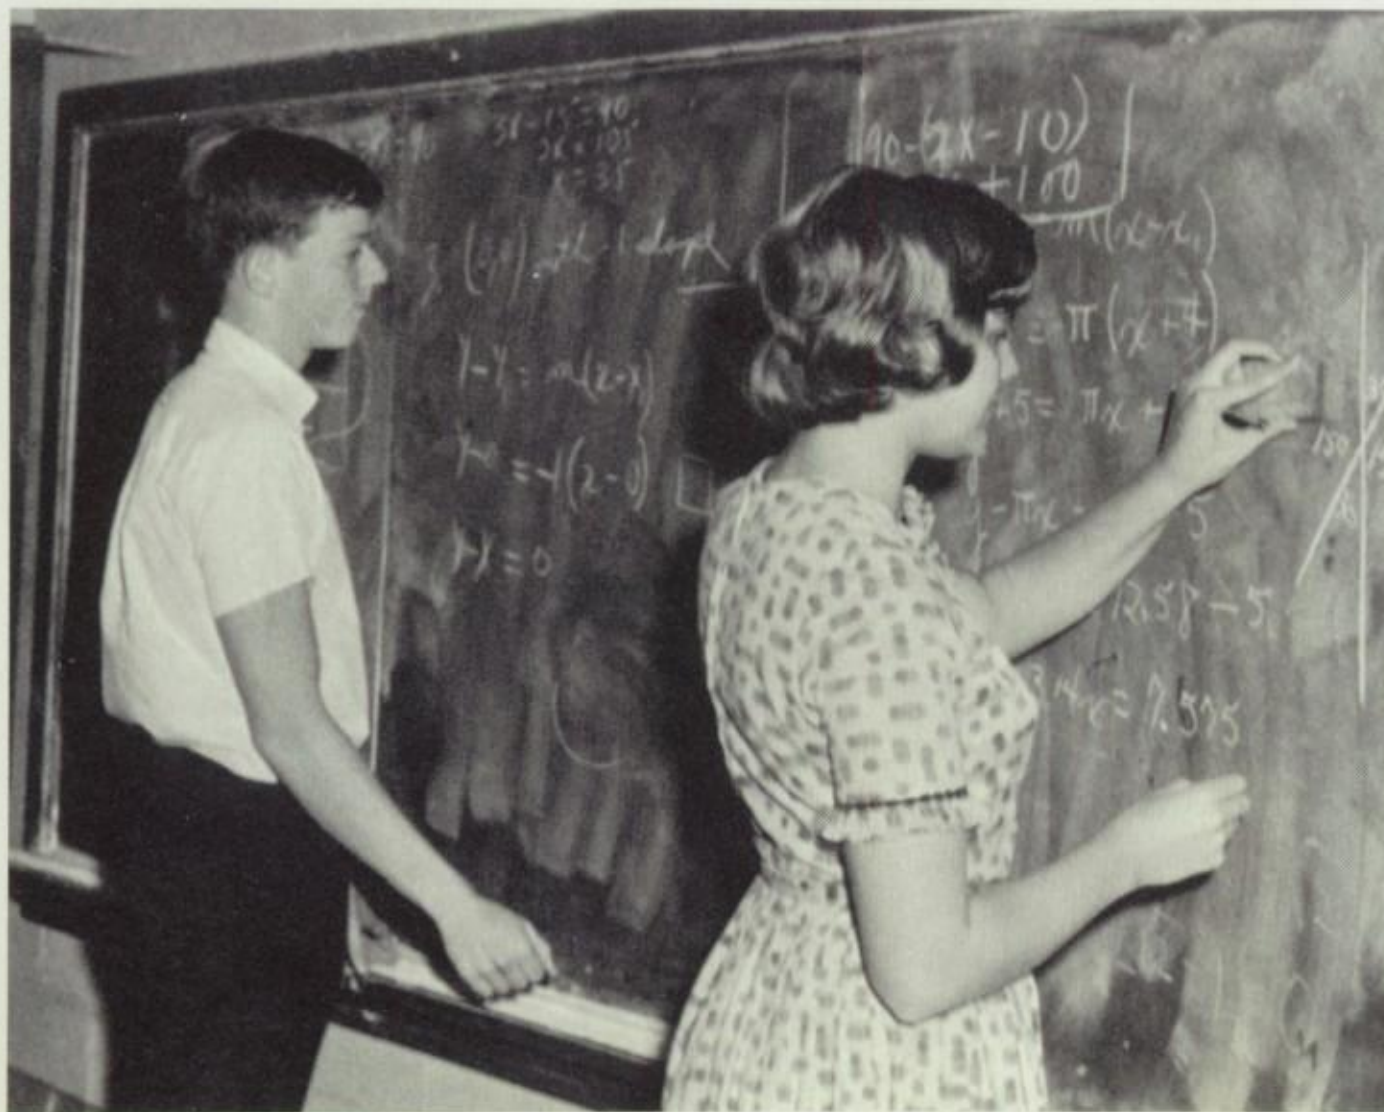

Mathematics and science are an essential part of the program of courses necessary to prepare students for college and their future vocations.

KHS students gain insight into the world of plants and animals through observations in biology, learn about the elements in chemistry, and are introduced to the concept of the unknown in algebra.

At KHS two credits in mathematics and two credits in science are mandatory. The two mathematics credits may be earned either in general math or algebra. Although students may take more than one science course, all are required to have two credits in science.

Plane geometry, advanced algebra, trigonometry, and senior math are the elected courses offered to students who wish to further pursue the field of mathematics. Chemistry and physics are available to those who desire them.

Mathematics Explore the Unknown

Social Studies and Business Helped

World history students point out some special points of interest.

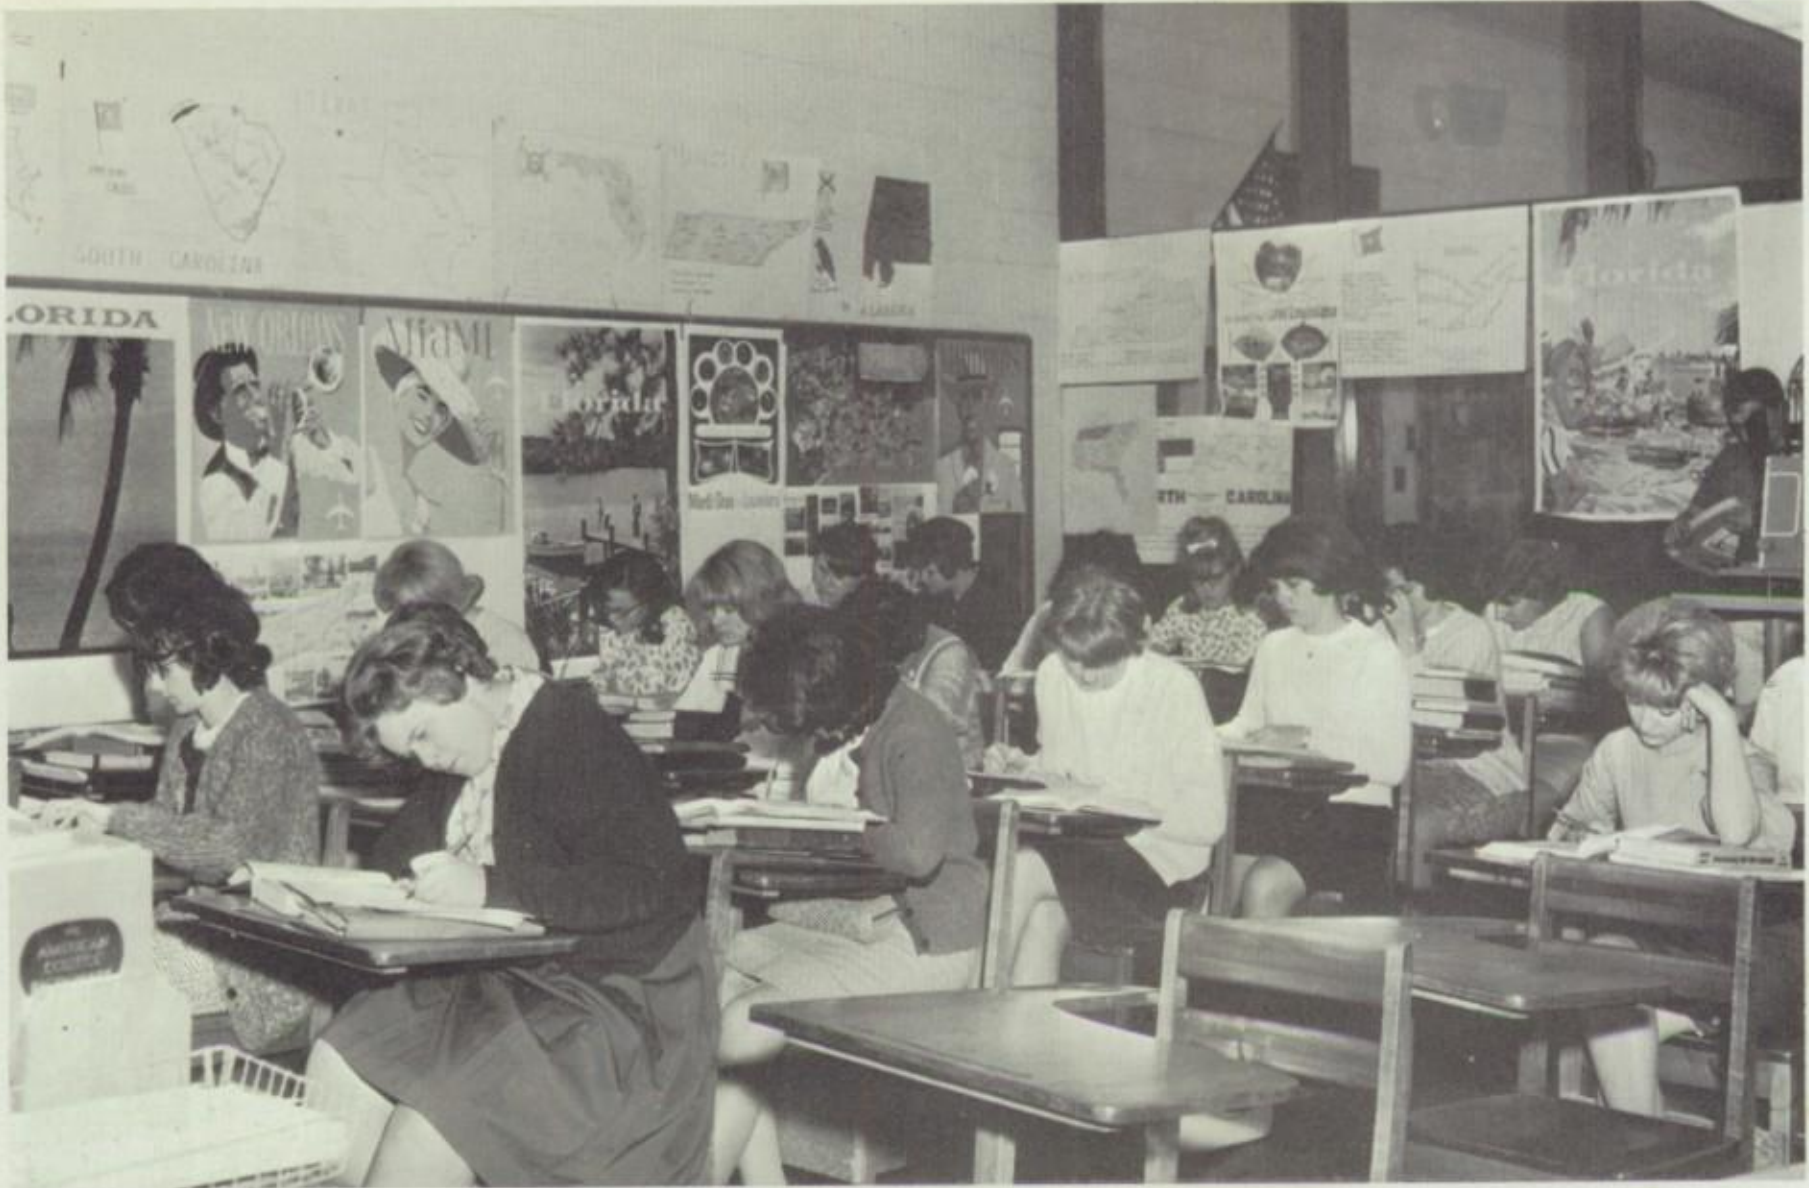

Social studies and business played an important part in the curriculum of many students. World history, an elective of the sophomore year, is the study of the world from prehistoric times to the present. United States history was required in the junior year. This course acquaints students with the history of our country from the time of its discovery to modern times. Government and economics, which were required in the senior year, gave students an understanding of the political and financial programs of the country.

Business courses such as typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and secretarial training were of great importance to those who planned to pursue a business career. But they can also be put to practical use in the future. Other business courses offered were general business, economic geography, and business law.

The economics classes visited the bank.

Students Understand Today's World

Maps were an essential part of economic geography class.

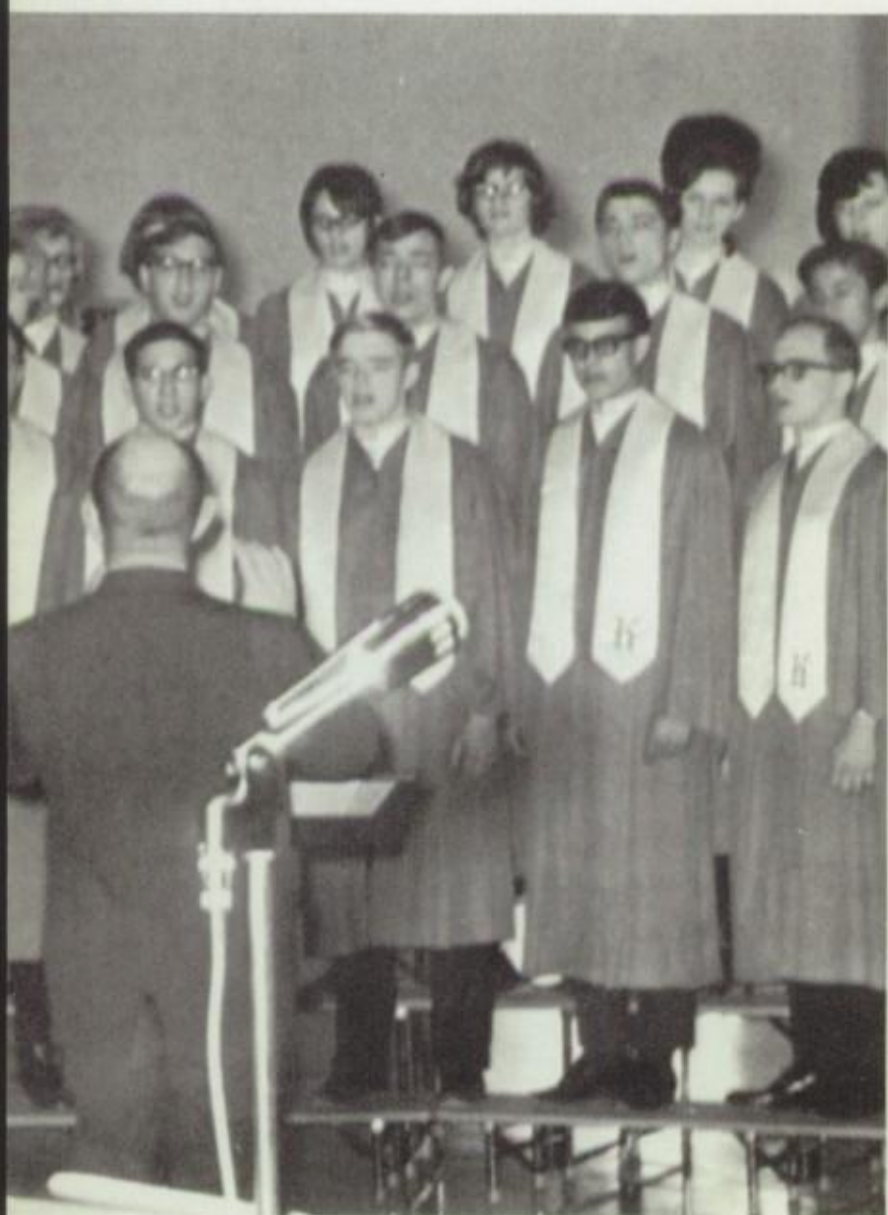

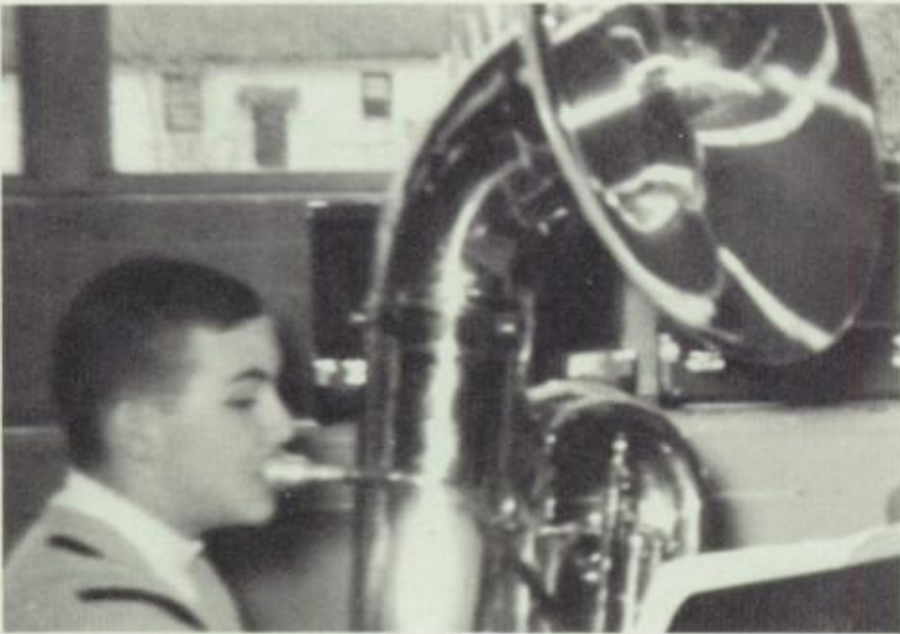

Typing was useful in a variety of ways.

Taking notes kept United States history students on their toes.

Music and Art Broaden Appreciation

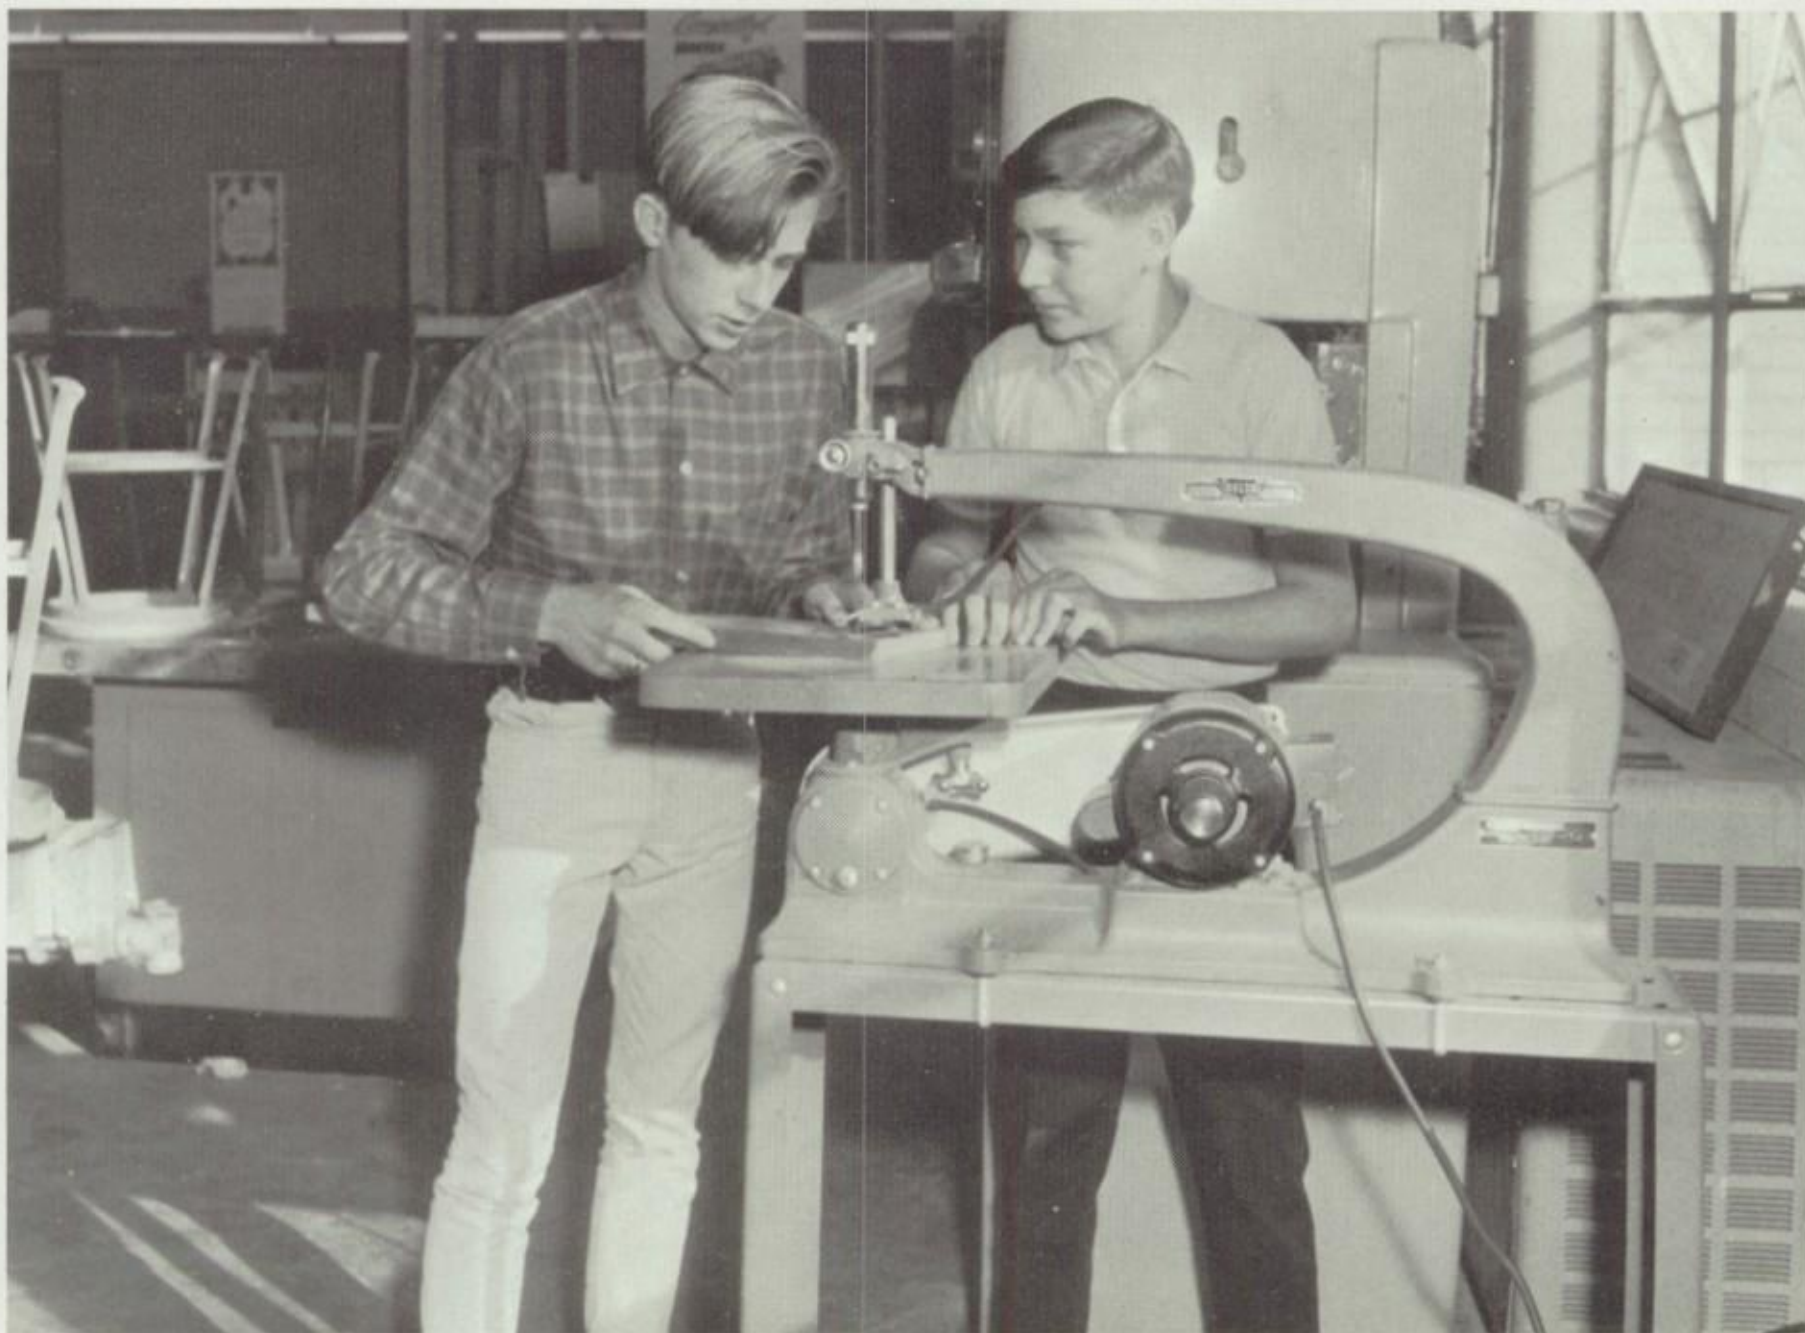

Music and art are very important in broadening the student's knowledge and appreciation of his field. The music department was very successful during the year. The band placed very high in the annual band contest, and both the chorus and band participated in concerts. This department also acquired a new instructor. Mr. Hanscom directed the chorus and was an assistant to the band director.

The art department, under the guidance of Mrs. Hendricks, developed their field by taking part in drawing, water painting, and the use of modeling clay.

Vocational Arts and Phys Ed

Paul Cress and Larry Hensley learn how to use one of the machines needed in shop class.

Bulletin boards were very popular in the home economics room.

Industrial arts, home economics, and agriculture were the vocational courses offered to students. These taught skills that will be very useful in the future.

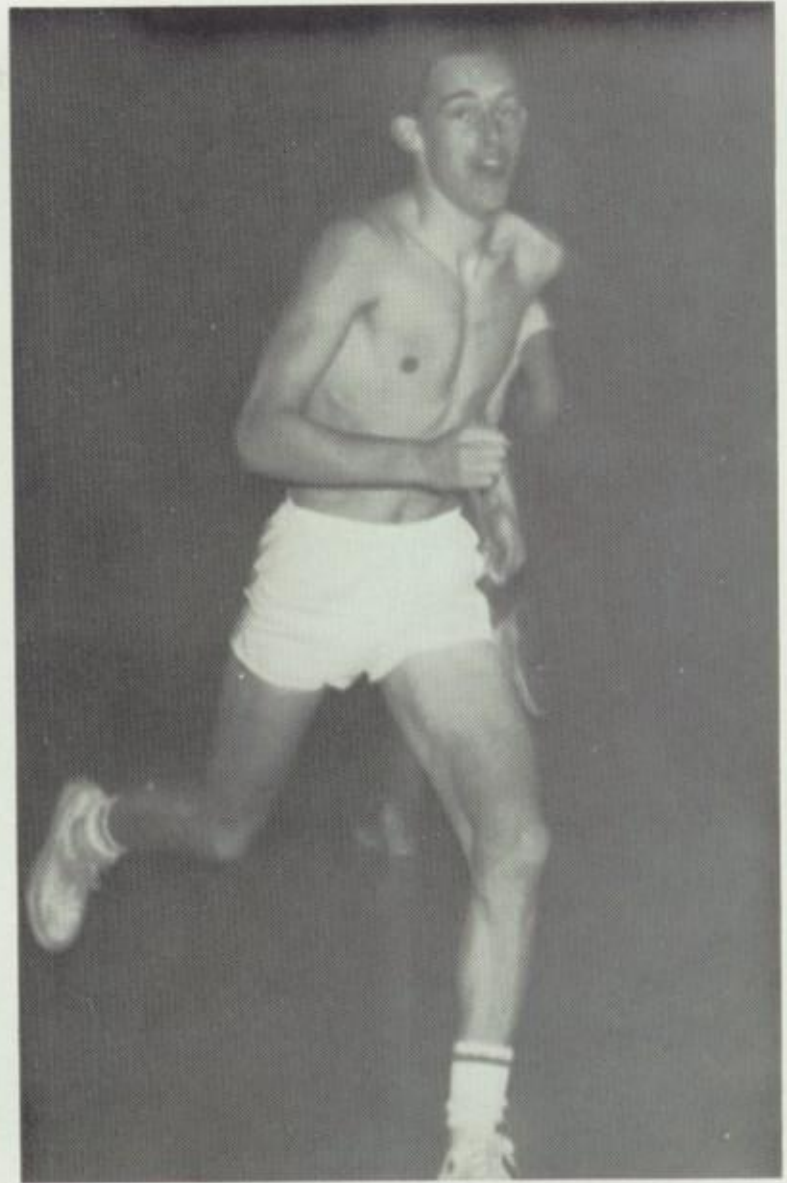

Home economics taught girls the fundamentals of cooking and sewing. Industrial arts courses included woodwork and metal work. Those who were interested in agriculture learned the fundamentals of becoming future farmers.

Physical education classes emphasized physical fitness. The students were given an opportunity to participate in many sports, such as basketball, ping-pong, volleyball, and shuffleboard.

Train the Hands and Body

Physical fitness was stressed in the phys ed classes.

Push-ups were a part of the everyday routine in boys' phys ed class.

The adult world in which each of you will enter has, and is, becoming more and more complex. The K n o x-Center-Washington Schools have undergone many improvements this year through the efforts of the school board. Among these were the blacktopping of the high school parking area, which will also serve as tennis courts for physical education. Additional equipment was purchased for the junior high and high school home-making and industrial arts areas. Also three new school buses and three new class rooms of furniture were purchased. Those improvements were deeply appreciated by both the faculty and students.

Lead the Seniors to a Successful Year

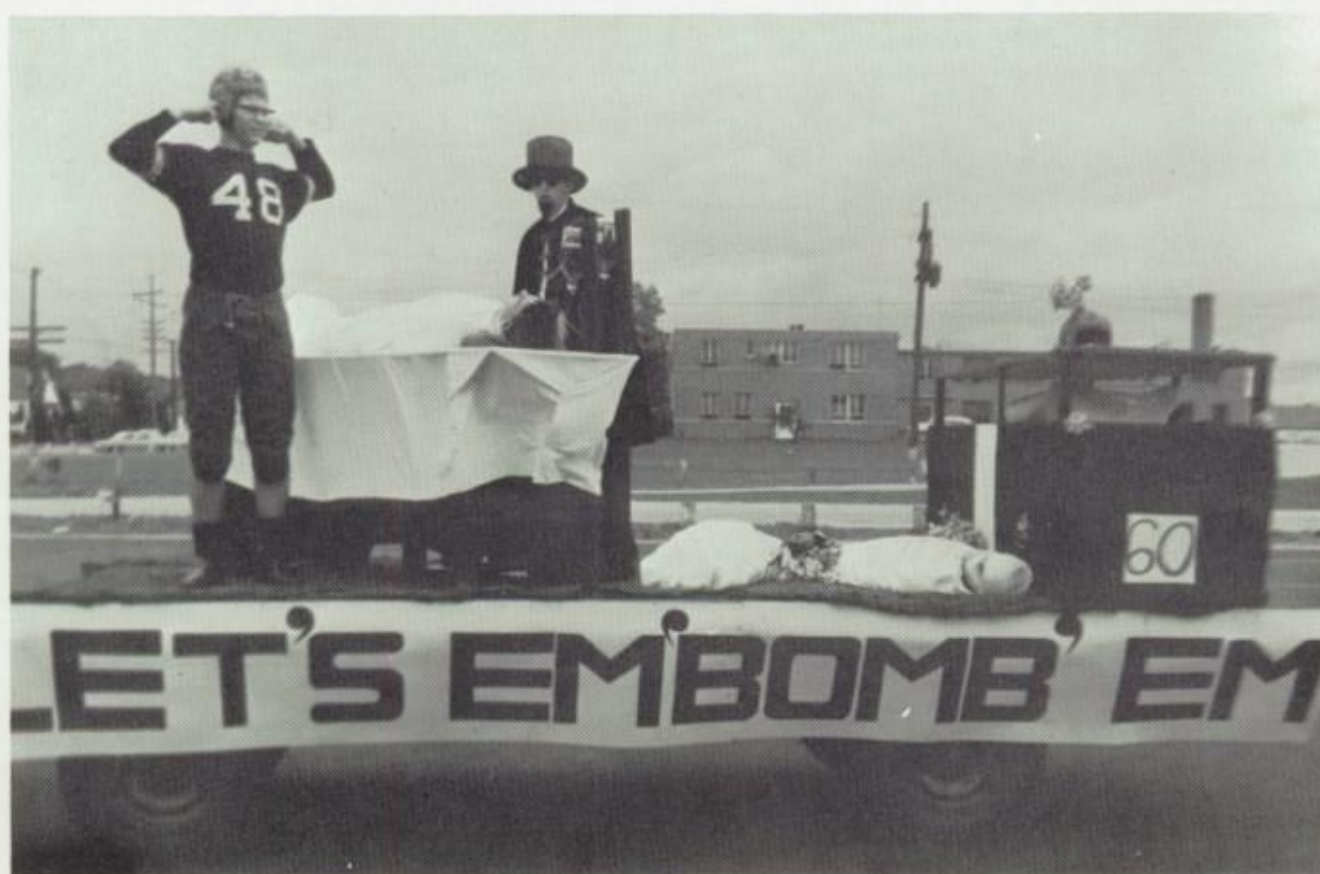

Sponsors: Mr. McCurdy, Mr. Mulligan, Mr. Rush, Mr. Simmons

The Class of '66 found the satisfaction of knowledge as well as fun in the activities they joined. They realized the importance of their high school years in terms of experience and learning.

They will probably never forget the fun they had making their homecoming floats, working on the prom, and joining in the school organizations.

The Seniors will look back on these four years with many fond memories, but they will also look forward to their future. Graduation marks a turning point for the Class of '66, and it is one that they will long remember.

The Senior class float won second place in the Homecoming parade.

Tom and Ed Maintain High Averages

The valedictorian of the class of '66 was Tom Allen, Maintaining a high scholastic average, Tom also took part in extra-curricular activities, especially the X.E.N. Science Club because his major interest lay in the field of science. In addition to being in the Student Council, Tom was honored by serving as the president of the Senior Class.

This year's salutatorian and Boy's State Representative, Ed Green, also had his main interest in science and served as the president of the X.E.N. Science Club in his senior year. In his sophomore year he received the Navy Science Cruise Award for his entry in the district science fair. Since he was also interested in music, he belonged to the Band for four years and was the president in his senior year.

STANDING: Cindy McClure, Shirley Roberts, Billie Jo Elam, Angelo Armondo, Bill Wilhelm. SITTING: Ron Price, Carole Whiting, Lyn Siebenthal, Sharon Hanson, Gerry Lewis.

These Seniors came after the valedictorian and salutatorian in their scholastic averages for seven semesters. These students proved that they could excel not only in scholastic work but in extra curricular activities because among them were the president of the student body, the class secretary, secretary-treasurer of the Student Council, the D.A.R. Good Citizen, the Girls' and Boys' State representatives, the editor and two assistant editors of the annual, the president of F.T.A., the vice-president and two members of the Science Club, three homecoming queen candidates, the vice-president and one member of K Club, the secretary and three members of the band, five members of cheerblock, two varsity football and basketball players, two members of G.A.A., and the treasurer of the Library Club.

These activities and much hard study kept the honor students busy, and they rightfully earned their place in the top twelve.

Juniors Worked Hard

Sponsors: Mr. Miller; Miss Phillips; Mr. Frymier; Mr. Fites. Officers: Bonnie King, Treasurer; Martha Ikeda, Secretary; Larry Sands, Vice-President; Tom Wilhelm, President; Larry Dust, Student Council; Cathy Crider, Student Council.

When the class of '67 entered the halls of K.H.S., they found new experiences awaiting them. Since the class officers and student council members had been elected last spring, the Junior Class was ready to begin planning its fall activities.

One of the highlights of the year was the making of their homecoming float, which won third place in the float competition, and the choosing of Cathy Crider as their homecoming queen candidate. Other highlights were the selecting of class rings and the receiving of them early in November, and the sponsoring of a dance and the Junior-Senior Prom. The activities lived up to everyone's expectations.

All of these activities were under the direction of their sponsors—Mr. Miller, Miss Phillips, Mr. Frymier, and Mr. Fites.

The class was saddened when they heard that Fred Smith had been killed in an automobile accident. He was very active in FFA, and he was also in charge of changing the activities on the display sign in front of the gym.

The Sophomores are the largest class ever to enter the halls of K.H.S. Their float theme was, "Let's Float Our Way to Victory"; and although it did not place, it showed that much hard work had been put into it.

The class of "68" takes part in all types of activities. In sports sophomores rank high in varsity competition. They also participate in G.A.A., annual, science club, and other activities.

The sophomores have adjusted well to K.H.S. life and seem to be enjoying their daily activities.

They were determined to do their best in studies. By the end of their school year all had gone through some trials in Latin, math, home-economics, English, general business and other subjects. Thanks to their sponsors, Mr. Scholtz, Mr. Sanders, Mr. Young and Miss Douglas, the Freshmen had a successful last year at K.J.H.S.

Student Council Members Represent

Student President William Wilhelm

Bill Wilhelm was chosen the President of the Student Body, the highest and most honored position in the school. Bill was active in sports being a varsity letterman in both football and basketball. He was also a four year member of the Knox High School Band. Bill was in the top five percent of his class.

All students were kept well informed of the activities which were taking place as he read the daily announcements at the beginning of second period. Bill was a very gracious host at lyceum programs and was very worthy of the high position at which he did an excellent job.

Dust; Cathy Crider; Nancy Mlekodaj. KNEELING: Dennis Price; Wade Nichols.

The Student Council Members represent the entire student body. They are elected by each class and with the guidance of Mr. James, their sponsor, run the school government for the benefit of the students. The members usher at lyceum programs, pep sessions, graduation, and are responsible for homecoming preparations. At Christmas, in cooperation with the FHA, they collected food for the needy children in our school district. Throughout the year the council helped prepare many activities through very worthwhile work.

Over 500 pounds of food were collected at Christmas time for needy families.

FTA Gives Real Teaching Experience

Jim Oliverius, Vice President; Nancy Polen, Reporter, Kathy Zechiel, Program Chairman; Billie Jo Elam, President; Sharon Hanson, Secretary-Treasurer, Larry Harris, Historian.

The main purpose of the Knox Chapter of Future Teachers of America was to give students experience in teaching. During the two weeks' period of cadet teaching each member of the club had the opportunity to teach in either an elementary, junior high, or senior high class. This has proved to be a very worthwhile project.

Throughout the year all students became better acquainted with the problems and rewards of the teaching profession.

X.E.N. Science Club Meetings

Mr. Frymier, Sponsor; Tom Allen, Sergeant-at-Arms; Ed Green, President; Angelo Armondo, Vice-president; Karen Bailey, Secretary-Treasurer.

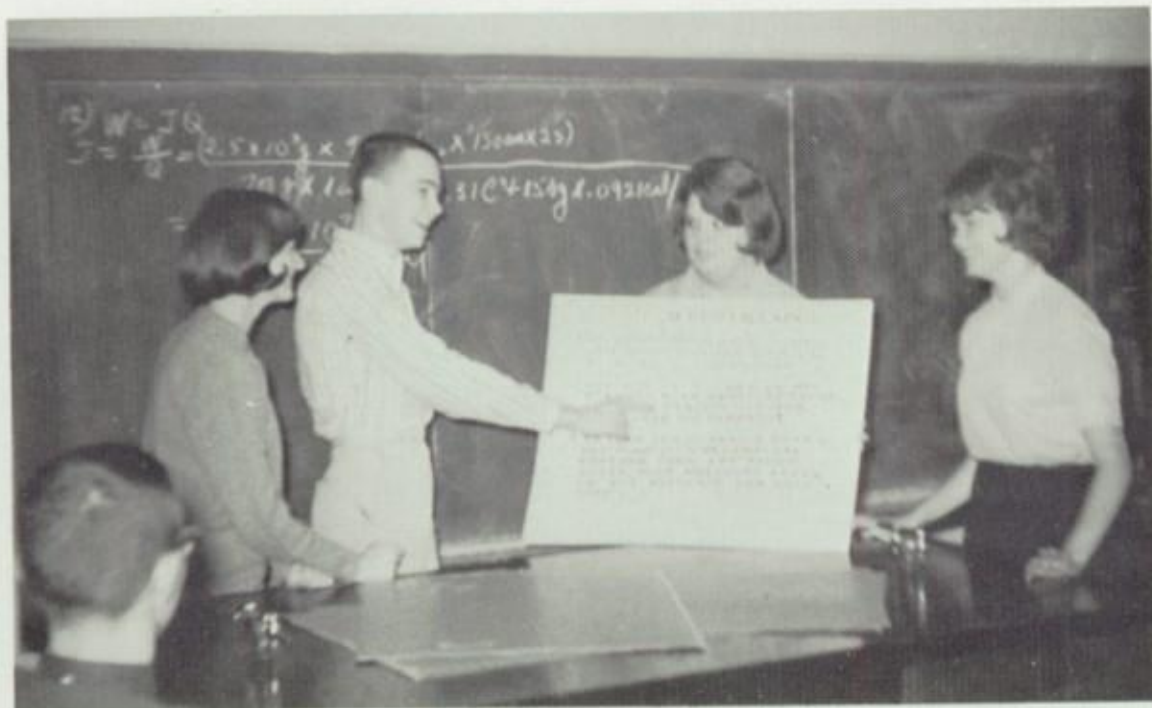

I don't want to hear about it.

The X.E.N. Science Club, under the direction of Mr. Frymier, is an organization for those students who are interested in furthering their knowledge in science by giving them an opportunity to experiment and study in the field of their choice. Meetings were held every two weeks. After a business session, students experimented in various fields.

The main responsibility of the Science Club was to sponsor the Annual Science Fair. Each member of the club was required to have a project in the fair. Displays in chemistry, biochemistry, biology, botany, and various other fields of science were represented.

The K-Club, sponsored by Mr. Rush, head football and wrestling coach, consists of over 30 members, of which about half are seniors. To become a member a boy must earn a "K" in a major sport. The K-Club sold decals and "Redskin license plates" at the home basketball games to earn some money. They also sponsored a dance in which a skit was put on by some of the members. They called themselves the "K-Klub Kuties", really a swinging band. Then the K-Club also will go on their annual K-Club outing.

"Our Right to Know" was the theme of the 1965-1966 Smoke Signals staff, and its goal was to present the student body with more comprehensive and complete coverage of high school news.

Through the cooperation of the staff and sponsor, Mrs. Fites, the frequency of the edition of the Smoke Signals was increased to two editions monthly compared to the previous year's monthly editions. Also more emphasis was placed on news rather than entertainment as an analysis of old copies of Smoke Signals proved necessary.

F.H.A. girls learn to use the sewing machine correctly.

The F.H.A., sponsored by Miss Phillips, with the help of the officers, strives to help girls learn more about homemaking. Membership in the club not only gives the girls educational value, but also much pleasure and entertainment.

This year has been an enjoyable and successful year for the club. During the year the girls participated in many activities, such as making a float at homecoming; nominating Betty Cowen as homecoming candidate; sponsoring a caroling party during the Christmas season; preparing a banquet for the basketball boys, coaches, and cheerleaders; having a bake sale; and selling cook books.

The F.H.A. club now belongs to the district, state, and National F.H.A., and are working for requirements for an honor chapter.

Our high school Chorus has gained many new faces, one of which is the new director, Mr. Hanscom.

This year, by selling candy, the chorus finished paying for the extra robes and made a little extra spending money.

The chorus sang before the school at Thanksgiving and Christmas. At Christmas they combined with the band to give their first public concert. Other concerts in combination with the band were the Mid-Winter concert and the Pop's concert held in May. All of these fine programs were enjoyed by all.

Now, you aren't really singing, are you, Bill?

Knox High School Band Wins

When the marching season ended, the concert work began. The band joined with the choir to present the Christmas concert, which was held on December 21, 1965. March 18, 1966, marked the mid-winter band concert, and on May 13, the band again joined with the choir to present the Pop's concert. In the month of February the solo and ensemble contest was held which was participated in by many. The concert band, under the able direction of Mr. Terry Collins, has worked very hard this season and has received much praise for their performances.

Under the able direction of Mr. Terry Collins, the Knox High School marching band made many successful appearances this year. In addition to the sparkling half-time shows presented throughout the football season, the band, consisting of 59 members and 23 pom-pom girls, performed in the Homecoming Parade, the Memorial Day Parade, and the centennials at Kouts and Wanatah, winning a first place trophy at the former and a second place trophy at the latter.

The Knox band also competed at Fort Wayne in the state contest. They were very honored to receive a high rating on inspection and first place in their division. Drum Major, Darrell Six, was awarded the best drum major award, which was being competed for by all of the drum majors and drum majorettes participating in the contest. The highlight of the season was the trip to Terre Haute to take part in the parade and the half-time show at Indiana State's Homecoming.

This year the Library Club was composed of ninety-three students in both the junior high and the high schools. The student librarians and the student projectionists were under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Curnutt. The Librarians are responsible for checking books, serving the students, repairing old books, and making the facilities of the libraries a pleasure to use.

While performing many services for the school, the librarians also survey the field of library science as a possible vocation. Many new books were added to both libraries this year. The Honorable Henry F. Schricker continued visiting the library—bringing valuable books, magazines, and pictures for the enjoyment of all.

The Junior High Book Club was organized to promote the advancement of reading among the junior high students.

Under the direction of the sponsors, Mrs. Ellison and Mrs. Hamblin, the students order monthly books from cartoon paperback books to classics.

In order for a junior high student to become a member of the Book Club, the student must order at least two books and not appear on the failure list.

Jack Receives High Honor in Sports

Jack receives Ben Bowen award at 1965 Athletic Banquet. Mr. Laramore made the presentation.

The winner of the Ben Bowen Award, chosen by all the coaches, the principals, and one member of the school board, was Jack D'Amato. He had taken part in all the major sports of Knox High School. He was on the varsity basketball and football teams in his junior and senior years and took part in track all four years.

Besides taking part in sports, Jack was a good student ranking among the top 12 of his class. He represented Knox High School as the Boys' State delegate and was active in many other extracurricular activities. He was business manager of the annual for 2 years. He was president of the K Club, vice-president of the Science club, and sports editor of Smoke Signals.

Jack is now a freshman at Indiana University.

A very good season record 15—5, including the championship of the Holiday Tourney, was climaxed by the winning of the sectional tournament in which the team had to play four hard games. Even though the team was beaten by a very fine Valparaiso team in the first game of the regional, Knox High was extremely proud of its team this year. The starting five were helped by two good senior substitutes, Bill Wilhelm and Pat Harris. The team also had four junior substitutes, Larry Dust, Tom Wilhelm, Mike Zink, and Dave Dolezal. These boys with the underclassmen coming up should form the nucleus of a good team next year.

Although Knox's record is respectable, it doesn't show a winning season at 4—5. The Redskins, however, had a winning season in a way by beating New Carlisle and North Judson, whom they hadn't beaten in seven and three years respectively.

Knox started out on the wrong foot by losing to Plymouth 33—6. But in the next game our boys bounced right back by beating Rolling Prairie 18—14 and then took their revenge on a good team, New Carlisle, by beating them 14—7. Then they ran into a bit of a slump and lost four in a row, two of which were really games that could have gone either way but the other teams squeezed through with River Forest winning 19—13 and Twin Lakes 14—13. The other two games were a little more one sided; North Liberty won 41—0 and Rensselaer 32—6. Then the boys started to move again and beat Walkerton in a good game of defense 7—0. Then came the game everyone had waited for with the school rivals, North Judson. This was the best game of the year with the final score 7—6 in favor of Knox.

Mr. Takats, 7th and 8th grade ass't coach; Mr. Sanders, 7th and 8th grade head coach; Mr. Rush, Varsity head coach; Mr. Sanders, B-team coach; Mr. Mead, Freshman coach.

Their third game was their only loss and it was to Renesselaer by a score of 20—0. This was a winning season and shows of better things to come.

One Track Record Broken Last Year

Johnson Breaks Record

This year we had a fairly successful track team with a 4—3 record, dropping the first one at Twin Lakes and losing a close second meet. We then got into the win column, winning four in a row. The last meet was lost to a swift North Judson team. In the Goshen relays we finished twelfth, at Rensselaer sixth, Rochester sixth, Penn fourth, and in the Sectional twelfth. Jack D'Amato, winning fourth in the Sectional, represented us in the Regional. Other players on the team were Seniors: John De Somer, Steve

After two years of not winning any meets, the Cross Country runners were happy to win two this year against LaVille and North Judson. Hard work and determined spirit helped the team, and they are looking forward to a more successful season next year. Mr. McBeth, a new teacher, was the coach this year.

The Knox wrestling team had a respectable season again this year with a 6 and 6 record. Wrestling is becoming more and more popular at Knox, as can be seen by the number of boys participating and by the large crowds at the matches. There were 25 boys out this year in comparison with 18 last year. The team won the tournament at Crown Point this year and placed 5th in the Sectional out of 8 teams. Coach Rush is hoping for more boys out next year and even better team.

To Miss
Carson,
One person I'm really going to miss at this time. I'll never forget all the times you tried to kick me out of the library, and when you used to call me the "Little Red".
As Always

Memories . . . Yes, that's all we have now. As we come to the last page of this book, we also come to the end of the realities of our high school days. We can return to them only by remembering. We shall never forget the happy moments . . . the surprises . . . the thrills . . . the friendships we've all had together.
